What We Do

For 20 years, TakeRoot Justice has provided legal and policy support to strengthen the work of grassroots and community-based groups in New York City to dismantle racial, economic and social oppression. Our partners take the lead in determining the priorities and goals for our work by bringing legal cases, policy questions and research questions to us. Our practice areas include: Capacity Building, Consumer Justice, Equitable Neighborhoods, Housing Rights, Immigrants' Rights, Participatory Research and Policy, and Workers Rights.

We believe in a theory of change where short-term and individual successes help build the capacity and power of our partners, who in turn can have longer-term impact on policies, laws and systems that affect their communities. Our work has greater impact because it is done in connection with organizing, building power and leadership development.

Your support empowers us to...

- Defend marginalized New Yorkers when they face aggression from landlords, employers and beyond
- File strategic lawsuits that compliment campaigns for social change,
- Utilize transactional lawyering tools to create and sustain movement organizations, and
- Support communities in furthering their own research agendas.

About the Event

This annual event allows us to honor our incredible partners, while raising much needed funds to support our programs. This year's event is especially exciting, as we celebrate our 20th anniversary! Attendees often include lawyers, activists, philanthropists, partner groups, organizers, thought leaders, community members, and more, all dedicated to dismantling racial, economic, and social oppression. We looking forward to joining together in community with you!
